In Rojero's words, "I been there and done that. And while I was doing it, I was taking notes!

"I managed to get around some. Got to take a one-year-all-expenses-paid journey to Vietnam, courtesy of Uncle Sam. Got to find myself on some stinking cold mountain tops, courtesy of a dare from some friends. Got to find myself on tropic isle beaches more than once. . . yeah, life's certainly a beach.

"I even got to work a bit on the Space Shuttle, but somehow never got to see one take off.

"I seen the moon upside down, too. Really! I'll let you figure that one out.

"Yeah, I been around some."
